Standard for Companion Cats

General Physical Condition: The cat should be in excellent health, with good coat condition. Battle scars are permissible provided they are clean.

Grooming and Cleanliness: A high standard of grooming is a requirement with no sign of any dirt or other foreign matter. Eyes and ears must be clean.

Coat: The coat colour and markings should be visually appealing, healthy and glossy, indicating good condition, with colour and markings melding to give an overall pleasing appearance.

Temperament: No specific type, coat or breed standard is applicable. Excellent temperament is a major requirement.

Appearance: The cat should be bright-eyed with an alert facial expression, with eye colour complementing the coat and pattern and colour. Overall, the cat should be visually appealing to the eye.
